Japanese-German Graduate Externship 10th Joint Seminar Held

This past winter the 10th Joint Seminar was held in Münster. These seminars are usually held sometime in the fall. However this one was held in December, making it the latest in the year to date. It was also held while Münster and most of Europe was experiencing some extremely cold, harsh weather conditions. Due to those conditions, flights were delayed, connecting flights were missed, luggage was lost and some people even had to take trains. Despite this, the seminar was very successful and everyone arrived home safely. These seminars were originally started from a pilot program and the 10th one has already come and gone.
